14 Tom: (to the old man) Don't be afraid. I'll go and see.

Perhaps it's an accident. Stay here and you'll be OK.

(to the guard) What's wrong? Why did we stop?

Guard: There's a large tree in front of the train. We'll have to move it, but we can't do it quickly. So this is the end of the journey for you. You'll have to get off the train and walk.

Tom: Walk where?

Guard: There's a village near here. You can go there and perhaps find a restaurant or a café. I have to stay here with the train. I'm very sorry about your journey. But you'll get your money back.

Old man: Thank you very much. I know that my case is heavy. There's a computer in it, and there are a lot of papers.

Tom: It's all right.

Old man: What's wrong, my young friend?

Lost Love and Other Stories

15 Possible answer:

Dear Mum and Dad,

I have some very good news. I have found a job in a sports shop. I was going to an interview in a town thirty kilometres away when the train stopped. At first, I thought it was the worst day of my life, but then I met a friendly old man with a bad leg. I helped the old man with his case and he told me he owned many sports shops. He said I was the best person for the job. I am so happy!

Yours

Tom
